

SS 2021 Seminar for diploma and doctoral students:

„Judeities“ – Legal, political, social and cultural history of the Jews in the modern period

The objective of this seminar is to engage with the legal, political, social and cultural history of Jews and Jewries in the modern period, from the 16th century to the present. As far as legal history is concerned the seminar focuses on three areas, first, the significance of early modern legal pluralism for the accommodation of Jews and their law, second, the implication of Art. 19 of the Austrian Staatsgrundgesetz for the reinvention of Jews as a modern nation and third, the question to which extent it may be helpful to interpret some of the constitutional challenges of the State of Israel and the Palestinian Territories in the light of the historical experiences of the Habsburg Empire and its successor states. This semester the seminar co-hosts the Vienna Jewish Studies Colloquium together with the CEU and other Viennese institutions active in Jewish studies.

Registration:

Online-Registration in U:SPACE from 8 February to 7 March 2021

Online-Deregistration in U:SPACE bis 08.03.2021

Dates:

Every Monday from 6.00 – 7.30 p.m.

